Speaker: Jan Kearbey, CWCP, CIC, CISR, CPIW
Director of Agency Relations
Service Lloyds Insurance Company

Jan has been in the industry since 1976 and is a firm believer in the philosophy that life is just too short to take yourself too seriously all the time. She's had an exciting career that's included working with an independent agency in Kansas City, serving as national faculty member with the Society of Certified Insurance Counselors (CIC), Executive Vice President of the Society of Certified Insurance Service Representative (CISR) and Executive Vice President of Operations for Texas Bankers General Agency before joining Service Lloyds as their Property/Casualty Claims and Loss Control Operations Manager for a local third party administrator. Since then she's become the Director of Agency Relations and is a pure joy to listen to and learn from. Learn more about Jan by attending one of our classes and meeting her at our conference!
